Dear Tyler

We have accepted the offer in compromise you signed and dated on 08/07/2019. The acceptance date is the date of this letter and acceptance is subject to the terms and conditions on the enclosed Form 656, Offer in Compromise.

The conditions of the offer require you to timely file and pay all required taxes for five tax years (including any extensions). This requirement begins on the date of this letter.

Under the conditions of the offer, we will keep any refunds or credits you may be entitled to for 2020 or for earlier tax years, including refunds you may be entitled to receive in 2021 for any overpayments you made toward tax year 2020 or earlier tax years. We will apply any refunds or credits to your liability, not to your accepted offer. If we filed a Notice of Federal Tax Lien against you, we will release it when you pay the offer in full. If you make the final payment by credit or debit card, we won't be able to release the Notice of Federal Tax Lien for up to 120 days from the date of the credit or debit payment.

If you are required to make any payments under this agreement, make your check or money order payable to the United States Treasury and send it to:

You must promptly notify us of any change in your address or marital status to ensure we can communicate with you about the status of your offer.

If you have submitted a joint offer with your spouse or former spouse and you are meeting or have met all the conditions of your offer agreement, but your spouse or former spouse does not meet the conditions of the offer agreement, your offer will not default.

If you fail to meet any of the terms and conditions of the offer, we will issue a notice to default the agreement. If the offer defaults, the original tax, including all penalties and interest will be due immediately. If we issue the default notice, we may:

- Immediately file suit to collect the entire unpaid balance of the offer.
- Immediately file suit to collect an amount equal to the original amount of the tax liability as liquidating damages, minus any payments already received under the terms of this offer.
- Disregard the amount of the offer and apply all amounts already paid under the offer against the original amount of the tax liability.

Offer in Compromise

To: Commissioner of Internal Revenue Service

I submit this offer to compromise the tax liabilities plus any interest, penalties, additions to tax, and additional amount required by law for the tax type and period(s) marked in Section 1 or Section 2 below.

Low-Income Certification (Individuals and Sole Proprietors Only)

Do you qualify for Low-Income Certification? You qualify if your gross monthly household income is less than or equal to the amount shown in the chart below based on your family size and where you live. If you qualify, you are not required to submit any payments or the application fee upon submission or during the consideration of your offer. If your business is other than a sole proprietor or disregarded single member LLC taxed as a sole proprietor and you owe employment taxes on or after January 1, 2009, you cannot qualify for the waiver. IRS will determine whether the household income (at the time of the offer submission or at the time the offer is processed, whichever is lower) and family size support the decision not to pay the application fee.

Check this box if your household's gross monthly income is equal to or less than the monthly income shown in the table below

Note: By checking this box you are certifying that your total household income and size of your family qualify you for the Low-Income Certification.

IF YOU QUALIFY FOR THE LOW-INCOME CERTIFICATION DO NOT INCLUDE ANY PAYMENTS WITH YOUR OFFER. However, if you elect to send in money and the Low-Income Certification box is checked, you MUST check ONE of the options listed below.

- Payment - By checking this box I am requesting all money to be applied to my tax debt
- Deposit - By checking this box I am requesting all money to be treated as a deposit and returned if my offer is not accepted

Please note that failure to check either box or checking both boxes above will result in all payments being applied to your tax debt and not returned to you.

Section 3 Reason for Offer

- Doubt as to Collectibility - I do not have enough in assets and income to pay the full amount
- Exceptional Circumstances (Effective Tax Administration) - I owe this amount and have enough in assets and income to pay the full amount, but due to my exceptional circumstances, requiring full payment would cause an economic hardship or collection of the full liability would undermine public confidence that the tax laws are being administered in a fair and equitable manner. I am submitting a written narrative explaining my circumstances

Explanation of Circumstances (Add additional pages, if needed) - The IRS understands that there are unplanned events or special circumstances, such as serious illness, where paying the full amount or the minimum offer amount might impair your ability to provide for yourself and your family. If this is the case and you can provide documentation to prove your situation, then your offer may be accepted despite your financial profile. If applicable, describe your special circumstances below and attach appropriate documents to this offer application

Please accept the Offer and allow the taxpayer as fresh start.
