Dear Mr. [REDACTED]:

This agreement is in response to an Offer in Compromise application received on or about February 24, 2024 regarding your responsibility for the unpaid sales and use tax of [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] Rajneet K. Singh is listed as your power of attorney. [REDACTED]

You offered $50,000 payable over 60 months in your Offer in Compromise application. Per the Comptroller's policies and procedures, payment plans are limited to 24 months. As such, the Comptroller's office is pleased to inform you that we have agreed to accept $20,000 payable over 24 months.

Under the terms of this agreement, you agree to settle your personal responsibility for the unpaid sales and use tax liability of [REDACTED] for a total sum of $20,000 payable at $833.33 per month starting September 15, 2024, and ending on August 15, 2026. Upon receipt of total payments from you in the amount of $20,000, the Comptroller's office will release the notices of tax liens filed against you and cease all collections activities against you for the unpaid sales and use tax of [REDACTED]. Please note that acceptance of this agreement and payment of $20,000 by you does not release the entity [REDACTED] or any other officer from liability for the unpaid sales and use tax.

If the terms of this letter are acceptable, please sign and return this Offer in Compromise agreement along with your first payment of $833.33 by September 15, 2024. The signed agreement should be sent to by e-mail only to oit@marylandtaxes.gov. Payments should be made online or mailed separately to the following address:

Please be sure to put the CR No. [REDACTED] in the memo line of any payments sent to our office. If I do not receive the signed agreement and payment of $833.33 by September 15, 2024, this offer shall be withdrawn, and the Comptroller's office shall continue to pursue collections actions against you and [REDACTED] for the entire balance due shown on the account.

Thank you for your assistance in resolving this matter. If you have any questions, please contact me.
